MEMBER RIGHTS

Membership in IslandTransformations.Org (the Society) is open to anyone with an interest in sustainable development on Vancouver Island upon completion of an application form, the payment of annual dues and acceptance by the Society Board. Individual, corporate, senior and student memberships are available. All members have the right to participate in Society activities, to vote at general meetings and to be elected, or appointed to the Society Board, excepting that student members under 16 are not eligible for the Board and do not have voting privileges.

MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES

Members agree to support the Constitution and By-Laws of the Society, to observe its policies and procedures, and to get involved. No member acting in a capacity as member, officer or director may receive any payment for services rendered on behalf of the Society.
